

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION & RESPONSE PROGRAM

USAG KAISERSLAUTERN

RESTRICTED REPORTING

- Does not trigger the investigative process
- Allows the service member who is sexually assaulted to disclose the incident to the SARC, Victim Advocate, Healthcare Provider, and Chaplain
- Allows victim to receive:
 - Medical treatment
 - A forensic examination which will be kept by the facility for 1 year
 - Advocacy services
 - Counseling assistance
- Command is notified of non-identifying information only

BENEFITS:

- Victim receives medical treatment, advocacy, and counseling
- Provides victim some personal space and time to consider options
- Victim controls release and management of his/her personal information
- Victim can elect unrestricted reporting at any time

Limitations:

- Victim's assailant remains unpunished
- Victim cannot receive Military Protective Order (MPO)
- Victim may continue to have contact with assailant
- Evidence from the crime scene will be lost and could impede the official investigation if the victim chooses to switch to an unrestricted report
- Victim will not be able to discuss the assault with other service members without imposing an obligation on them to report the crime
- Victim will be ineligible to invoke the collateral misconduct provision of the DoD's sexual assault policy in the event the victim's Command learns that he/she was engaged in some form of misconduct at the time of the assault

UNRESTRICTED REPORTING

- Army Policy favors unrestricted reporting
- Command and investigative services are notified
- Allows victim to receive:
 - Medical treatment
 - A forensic examination
 - Advocacy services
 - Counseling Assistance
 - Legal services

BENEFITS:

- Ensures the widest range of rights and protections to the victim
- Commander support (Military Protective Orders, separation from offender, deferred collateral misconduct, etc.)
- Full investigation enhances opportunity to hold offender(s) accountable (crime scene, witness interviews, suspect interrogation)
- May encourage other victims to come forward
- Enhanced community safety

Limitations:

- Cannot change to Restricted Reporting
- Victim may consider it too intrusive
- Others will find out
- Investigation and court proceedings might be lengthy and intrusive
- May not be enough evidence to convict the offender (s)
